SEDEScombe PARISH PLAN

As explained in the September 2007 Bulletin, the Sedlescombe Parish Plan is now five years old. The Parish Council has been considering whether it should begin a new comprehensive consultation exercise.

Another option would be for a group separate from the Parish Council to draw up its own plan following consultation with the public. Parish Plans, or Local Action Plans, as they are now called, do not have to be done by a Parish Council.

It is important is that grant funders are convinced that when we are seeking funds for projects, it is what the local residents really want.

Please help with the Parish Council decision by completing the following short questionnaire and returning it to the box in the Post Office on or before Monday 15 October 2007:

1. Number in household?.....

2. Does your household consider that it would be advantageous for a new consultation exercise to be undertaken in Sedlescombe? –

- 1. By the Parish Council YES/NO
- 2. By another group YES/NO – if yes – which group?.....

3. Please list up to three issues that you think should be tackled in Sedescombe:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
